

RIGHT TO READ WEEK

February 6-10

Our district will celebrate Right to Read Week from Feb. 6-10th this year. Northfield students will participate in some special reading activities each day throughout the week.

Monday, Feb. 6th: Reading is a Picnic

Students will enjoy a picnic-themed lunch in the cafeteria to kick off the exciting week.

Tuesday, Feb. 7th: Curl Up with a Good Book

Students may wear pajamas/robes/sweats or other appropriate comfortable clothing to school (no slippers please) and will read in their classroom. Please make sure your child is prepared for outside recess if weather permits.

Wednesday, Feb. 8th: This City Reads Day

Northfield will participate in This City Reads in which numerous Summit County schools and businesses stop their normal activities and read from 10:30 to 11:00 am. We will also spend some time reading with students from the National Honor's Society who will be visiting Northfield that morning.

Thursday, Feb. 9th: We Have a LOVE for Reading!

Throughout the week, students will enjoy making a valentine and a bookmark to give away during lunch on this special day. Students will enjoy reading the messages they receive.

Friday, Feb. 10th: Reading in Action

Students will practice and participate in Poetry Attacks and/or Reader's Theater performances at their grade level. They will pop in and share their performance with other classes.

Check out some of the other fun activities planned:

- Morning Riddles: Each morning, riddles will be read on the morning announcements. Students will answer the riddle and have a chance to win a book thanks to our Northfield PTA!
- Guest Readers: Members of our Central Office staff will be visiting classrooms to read a book to the students.
- ❖ Don't forget to show your school spirit on Friday, Feb 10th for SPIRIT DAY- students are asked to wear their Northfield/Nordonia gear or the colors green, white and/or black.
