University of Dayton

Military Science

January 7, 2025

Dear High School Guidance Counselor,

I am the Recruiting Operations Officer (ROO) at the University of Dayton Army Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC). I am writing to let you and your students know of the financial benefits of an Army ROTC High School Four-Year or Three-Year Advance Designee scholarship. Over the past year, we had 21 offers of the Army ROTC scholarships, either as a 4-Year scholarship or a 3-Year Advance Designee scholarship to incoming first year students to the University of Dayton. This was from a list of 61 applicants. Most had a choice of up to three schools and those who accepted UD this past fall received some additional incentives from the University of Dayton.

Each scholarship provides full tuition, $1200 a year book allowance plus a $420 subsistence allowance each year the scholarship is in effect.

1. The following incentives are offered for Four Year (full tuition valued at $49,140 a year) scholarship winners: The University of Dayton will provide up to $16,800 per year scholarship in addition to the Army ROTC Scholarship to cover room and board. Total annual benefit is over an average $70,280 with a four year benefit of over $285,000.

2. The following incentives are offered for Three Year Advance Designee Army ROTC Scholarship winners. The University of Dayton will apply your financial aid in year 1 based on their FAFSA scores, BUT, the University of Dayton will provide an amount of about $16,800K toward room and board for the remaining four years. The total benefit of this package is over $247,000.

The Army ROTC curriculum focuses on leadership development. This type of results oriented leadership is applicable to any career, military or civilian. We are looking for quality students in a scholar, athlete and leader (SAL) category and a propensity to serve their country in the Armed Forces.

I strongly encourage interested college bound students for the 2025 school year to apply for an Army ROTC four-year scholarship. Applications opened up for seniors on or about 12 June 2024 and can be completed on the Web at www.goarmy.com/rotc with a deadline of 4 March, 2025. The University of Dayton has an outstanding ROTC program that is well worth your consideration. There are over 275 schools that offer Army ROTC on campus and about 330 schools that partner with those schools. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me at (937) 229-5524, or you can contact me by e-mail, awomack1@udayton.edu. I am also available to conduct a school visit to meet with interested students either as a group or on an individual basis within about a 100 mile radius. If you would like a more detailed packet please let me know and I will be happy to mail that to you as well or use the QR code with information about UD AROTC and the National Scholarship. Thank you and have a great New Year!

Sincerely,

Alton W. Womack
